Paul Yankton Jr. Memorial Scholarship

Paul Yankton Jr. was a business man in our community for over 30 years operating Paul's Grocery, Paul's Gas and Oil, and the Laundry Mat. He was an avid sports fan who followed the Four Winds Indians Basketball teams wherever they went. In Paul's early years, he enjoyed bowling, and playing amateur basketball and softball. He was a big Minnesota Twins and Vikings fan and would always watch or listen to all of the games. The most important part of his life was raising his children and grandchildren. Paul was always involved in the education of our community, He was a member of the Tate Topa Tribal School Board, Fort Totten District School Board, and served as Chairman of the Board of Regents for Cankdeska Cikana Community College for over 30 years. He dedicated his life to ensuring that education was a staple in our community.
